Merry Christmas to you all! May God bless your New Year too! We have been this advent praying the Angelus prayer. It is a reminder of the great conversation of prayer we have with God. It is our privilege and honor to have a God so close to us as he is. Mary held all of these things in her heart and may the year be one where we grow closer to God like her, and the contemplation of his presence among us in the Eucharist.

Your in Christ,
Fr. Morris
