Mission Cooperative Collection:

Normally, each summer, we participate in a fundraiser to support an overseas mission church or a project in a developing country. In 2019, the church we helped was in Kenya. We did not participate in 2020 due to Covid.

Donations will be accepted on-line until December 15th through the website Missio.org. Please be aware the website charges 5% plus the amount of your donation. The additional 5% is listed as "for administrative fees" The link is...

Donations will also be accepted through the parish. If you want to donate through the parish, you can put your donation in any Sunday collection from now until December 12th. Please mark your donation for "Mission Co-op" on the envelope.

Here is information about this year's project. The project is to build a classroom. They have already raised $1367 of a $3000 goal.

Father Zambo and Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish in Mvie-Bekono, Cameroon, are raising money to improve the community's ability to form their own lay leaders. Currently interest catechists must travel to other parishes or attend workshops in small multipurpose rooms with little or no educational resources. Fr. Zambo plans to build a small classroom and stock a few library shelves with appropriate books and resources to help develop and form his community's leaders. A gift of $20 helps purchase materials. A gift of $100 dollars helps start construction.
