Formed.org: Discover thousands of books, audio talks, movies, documentaries, and studies including children's programming, family friendly movies and content in Spanish.

Our parish is currently in a free trial of formed.org until April 15th (Good Friday). Please consider taking time in the next two weeks and signing up for formed.org for free. Sign up under St. Joseph Catholic Church (zip code 68944) and check out the excellent content available. Then please let Fr. Morris, Theresa or Shelly know if you would like formed.org to remain an available resource for our parish families through a parish annual subscription.

An annual subscription would allow everyone in our parish access to all formed content at an approximate cost of $25 per interested family vs. $100 per year for an individual membership. It would also give interested people the opportunity to participate in bible studies, the formed book club and other programs like "the Search" with most content to be done at your own pace or as a group with in person meetings for discussion.

A flyer is available in the back of church with more information on how to sign up and available devices.
