Memorare of the Blesses Virgin Mary:

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my Mother.

To thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful.

O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me. Amen.

Nativity Scene at St. Joseph in Geneva:

The Nativity scene at St. Joseph Catholic Church in Geneva (831 E Street): Come visit the Fontanini Nativity of Father Waskowiak in the St. Joseph coat room. A Spanish Nativity scene is called a called a Belén which means Bethlehem, since a Spanish Christmas scene includes the entire town of Bethlehem and what often looks like all of Judea. In addition, there are angels, shepherds, sheep, farmers, hunters, washerwomen and bakers plus caves and houses and temples, rocks and streams and mountains. There are Magi on their camels, but the center and focus is the Mysterio, the group of Mary, Joseph and Jesus in the Crib. We can see that the nativity scene is much more than simply another Christmas decoration. It is an image of God who is Himself an image of Love. As we make our way through this Christmas season, let us take the sight of a Nativity scene as an opportunity for us to remember the mystery of the Incarnation and the love which God has for us. This will be open for viewing during the day and evening throughout the Christmas season until February 2
