We continue our reading of The Sacrament of Charity Sacramentum Caritatis ON THE EUCHARIST AS THE SOURCE AND SUMMIT OF THE CHURCH'S LIFE AND MISSION. In this next section Pope Benedict XVI reminds us that the Church is the “universal sacrament of salvation,” that is, it is through the Church, as a sign or instrument, that we are able to enter into communion with God and that the human race can become one in Christ. And it is through the seven sacraments that God’s grace concretely influences the lives of the faithful. He then proceeds with a reflection on the relationship of each of the sacraments with the Eucharistic Mystery, as the Eucharist is truly the source and summit of the Church's life and mission. The process of Christian initiation must constantly be directed to the reception of the Holy Eucharist, “It must never be forgotten that our reception of Baptism and Confirmation is ordered to the Eucharist.” Baptism is our entry into the Mystical Body of Christ, we become sons and daughters of God, and it serves as the portal to all the Sacraments. “Still, it is our participation in the Eucharistic sacrifice which perfects within us the gifts given to us at Baptism. The gifts of the Spirit are given for the building up of Christ's Body (1 Cor 12) and for ever greater witness to the Gospel in the world. The Holy Eucharist, then, brings Christian initiation to completion and represents the center and goal of all sacramental life.” While the order of the reception of the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist varies in different dioceses and in the East and the West due to pastoral reasons, the Holy Eucharist is the goal, the center, the summit and source of the Christian Life! He then emphasizes the important role of the family when it comes to Christian Initiation and that for so many of the faithful, “the day of First Holy Communion continues to be memorable as the moment when, even if in a rudimentary way, they first came to understand the importance of a personal encounter with Jesus.” We will continue our reading and summary next week.

Sincerely yours in Christ, Fr. Clinch
